Monroe County School In Important Role

BEATRICE — Wednesday evening ing, May 22, 1946, eighteen boys of the Monroe County Training School NFA chapter, together with their advisor, Prof. A. J. Brown, found themselves loading on a school bus for the purpose of attending the State NFA Associattion which convened at Tuskegee Institute on May 23 and 24.

In brief the convention consisted of seating delegates, committee assignments, softball tournament, public speaking contest, quartet contest, quiz contest, president's annual address, conferring of degrees, election of officers, and interesting talks by supervisory staff and other outsanding visitors.

Fred Montgomery was chairman of the H. O. Sargent and FFA Foundation Incorporated Award's committee while our advisor, Prof. Brown, was chairman of the educational mass meeting committee.

Among those who took part in the contest were: Fred Montgomery, quizz contest; quartet, quartet contest. The quartet, composed of Robert Lee Cunningham, Charlie Edward Cunningham, Willie J. Lett, and Jerry Simmons, won first place. While Fred did not win first place, he acquitted himself with credit.

Taking part in the stunt program were: Lewis and Lucus Black, who likewise made a favorable impression with their respective solos —"Danny Boy" and "I Love You Truly." Also our second quartet, known as the "Happy Four," composed of Connie Copeland, Fred Copeland, Fred Anderson and Eddie Williams, appeared on the program. Although these boys did not compete for prizes, they drew from their audience many loud applauses with their two numbers — "Cool My Parching Tongue" and "Twelve Gates to the City."

Prizes won by the chapter were as follows: Samuel Cunningham, first place in shop work, $25.00; Fred Montgomery, Star Modern Farmer, $25.00; Quartet, first place, $20.00.

Among those who received degrees were: Samuel Cunningham, Modern Farmer; Fred Montgomery, Modern Farmer; Prof A. J. Brown, honorary degree of Modern Farmer.

Charlie Edward Cunningham was elected to the position of state treasurer.

The quartet has already started work to represent the State NFA Association at the sectional meeting which will take place at Tuskegee Institute June 21, 1946. We are pulling for them. We hope they will win.

National Leaders Hail Supreme Court Anti-Segregated Bus Decision

Leaders From All Sections Laud Decision

NEW YORK — Distinguished Americans from all parts of the United States have telegraphed congratulations to the NAACP on its victory in the United States Supreme Court in the Irene Morgan case which prohibits segregation based on race or color in interstate bus travel.

Herbert H. Lehman, former Governor of New York State and until recently Director of UNRRA, wired:

"I am greatly pleased and thoroughly agree with the decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation on interstate buses. I am very confident that the law-abiding citizens of the states affected will willingly and fully abide by this just decision."

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, President of the American Jewish Congress, telegraphed:

"Rejoice over long deferred decision Supreme Court regarding interstate buses. Profesisonal Negro baiters will howl, but decent minded Southerners and Northerners will approve and rejoice in just irrepealable decision."

Mark Ethridge, Editor of the Louisville, Ky., Courier - Journal, telegraphed the following excerpts from an editorial in that newspaper of June 5th:

"In a series of memorable decisions, the Supreme Court has proved its title as the sanctuary of liberties. One may feel an incompleteness in that the opinion on the Virginia segregation law was based on its being 'a burden on interstate commerce' and that the case was not decided on the issue of fundamental right. At that, the opinion is bound to be of great effect, serving the purpose of enhancing human dignity and protecting American guarantees by whatever channel it moved thither."

A wire from Carter Wesley, Editor of the Houston Informer, stated:

"NAACP won another fundamental victory for civil rights. Significant victory in the economic improvement of the South. Expect no repercussions. Majority of whites in the South are interested in seeing injustice corrected and are further advanced than the leadership on this question."

From Bishop Bernard J. Sheil, Founder - Director of the Catholic Youth Organization came the following message:

"Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in interstate buses is telling blow in fight for equality of Negroes and in struggle to extend elementary democratic rights to all our people. All Americans can life heads higher because of this decision. We are beginning to practice what we preach."

The following wire was received from Bartley C. Crum, distinguished San Francisco attorney who was campaign manager on the West Coast for the late Wendell Willkie and who has just returned from Europe as the American representative on the Displaced Persons Commission:

"The decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation on interstate buses is a victory for the

NAACP Official Threatened With Grand Jury Action In Columbia Case

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Adjourning until Monday, June 10, a federal grand jury which was supposedly investigating possible violations of civil rights of Negroes in the Columbia, Tennessee, violations of February 25, excused two officials of national organizations who had been subpoenaed to testify, and released a third on condition that he voluntarily return when summoned again. Samuel Neuberger, New York member of the Civil Liberties Union, and James Dombrowski of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare were excused following their testimony. Oliver Harrington, NAACP Public Relations Counsel, was excused on condition.

Harrington, for many years a cartoonist and writer in the Negro press and former Pittsburgh Courier war correspondent, was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury after he had written a pamphlet called "Terror in Tennessee" which had presented the facts in the so-called "riot" and which had been widely circulated by the NAACP throughout the country. According to a usually reliable source, there seemed to be a strong possibility that some action was being contemplated against the writer.

The Voice of The Vets

By C. D. F. WILKINSON

Fellow veterans, do you know of a comrade who gave his life for his country, and his familiy is not getting the benefits of the "Death Pensions"? We should surely concern ourselves with the task of contacting some of these familes and try to aid them in getting some of the benefits that they are deservant of, since it is impossible to give life to those who gave their lives that this country might be free of the greed and dominating powers of the rest of the world.

The occasion prompts us to discuss in our topic this week: Death Pensions.

Death Pensions

When a serviceman dies while he is still in the service or while receiving a pension or other benefits payable by the Veterans Administration for disability incurred in the service, his dependents may receive a pension. The amounts of pensions payable to dependents under these conditions are as follows:

Widow, no child, $50; widow, one child (with $13 additional for each child) $65; no widow, but one child, $25; no widow, but two children (with $10 for each additional child, the total not to exceed $100), $38; dependent father and mother, each, $25, one only $45.

To file a claim for these death tion. If the claim is filed within one year of the death of the veteran, pension will be paid from the date of the veteran's death. If the claim is not filed within one year of the death of the veteran, payment will start as of the date the claim was filed.

Pension: Non-Service Disabilities

Under the present law if you served in the active military or naval service for a period of ninety days or more during the present war (during the period from December 7, 1941, to the end of the war), and have been honorably discharged from the service, you are entitled to receive a pension if you are permanently and totally disabled, even though this total disability is neither the results of, nor started during the period of military or naval service. The disability, however, must not occur as a result of misconduct. The disability may start any time after discharge.

The ninety-day period may not have been served before the end of the war. If you entered the service two days before the end of the war, and served the remainder of the ninety-day period after the war ended, in a continuous tour of service, you are still eligible. The same provision holds if you entered the service before December 7, 1941, and served continuously for a period of at least ninety days, any part of which period extended past Dec. 7, 1941.

Less Than Ninety Days Service

If you served for less than ninety days, but some part of the service occurred during the period between December 7, 1941, and the end of the war, and if you were discharged for a disability incurred in the service in line of duty, you also are entitled to a pension for a total disability which is not the result of your own misconduct.

Permanent Total Disability

It is important to remember that under this provision of the law, no pension will be paid for any per-

NAACP Urges Railroad Brotherhoods Reform All Anti-Negro Membership Practices

NEW YORK—Following vigorous denunciation by the NAACP of President Truman's proposal to draft strikers into the Army and that the President be given sole authority to determine conditions on which strikers should be drafted, the NAACP has forwarded to A. F. Whitney, President of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Alvanley Johnston, President of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, copies of its telegram to the President and urged that these railroad brotherhoods cease their anti-Negro practices.

Opposition to the President's plan to use the powers of the federal government in unprecedented fashion to break strikes was taken by the NAACP, Messrs. Whitney and Johnston were informed, "despite the action of the brotherhoods in excluding qualified Negroes from membership and practicing other discrimination based solely on race and color. This Association seeks always to make its judgments and to base its actions on fundamental principles even when, as in the railroad strike, the unions themselves are guilty of discrimination against Negroes."

"We sincerely hope" the NAACP's letter continued, "that steps will be taken at the most speedy rate to end this racial discrimination so that when again your union comes before the public for support of its claims, it can do so with clean hands and not be in the position of seeking benefits for itself which it denies other American citizens.'

To file a claim for these death benefits, the dependent or his agent, should get in touch with a Regional Office of the Veterans Administration one year of the death of the veteran, pension will be paid from the date of the veteran's death. If the claim is not filed within one year of the death of the veteran, payment will start as of the date the claim was filed.

Pension: Non-Service Disabilities

Under the present law if you served in the active military or naval service for a period of ninety days or more during the present war (during the period from December 7, 1941, to the end of the war), and have been honorably discharged from the service, you are entitled to receive a pension if you are permanently and totally disabled, even though this total disability is neither the results of, nor started during the period of military or naval service. Permanent Total Disability

It is important to remember that under this provision of the law, no pension will be paid for any permanent disability which is less than total. A permanent total disability exists, under the law, when you have anything wrong with your mind, or your body that makes it impossible for the average person to follow an occupation on trade, and where it is reasonable to believe that the disability will continue for the rest of our life. The Administrator of Veteran Affairs has the authority to decide that certain diseases and disorders are permanent and total, if in his judgment they should be so classified.

Rate of Pensions

The amount of pension payable for non-service connected total disability is $50 per month, and the amount will be increased to $60 per month when the recipient has been receiving the pension for a continuous period of ten years, or when he reaches the age of 65. (P.L. 313, 78th Congress).

Hospital Rates

If you have neither wife, child nor dependent parent, and are being furnished hospital treatment, domiciliary care, or care in any other institution which is supported by the United States Government, a State Government, or any other political sub-division, your pension will not be more than $8 while you are receiving hospital care, or while you live in the institution.

If you do have a wife, child, or dependent parent, and are receiving care as outlined in the paragraph above, part of your pension may be paid to the wife, child, or parent by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Thus comrades we are discontinuing for the time, and as yet I have received no questions for which you would like to know the answers to, but I shall be with you again next week.

P. B. Young, Sr., Editor of the Norfolk Journal and Guide, stated:

'Editorial comment and bus administration official reaction indicate acceptance and full compliance with court's decision in Virginia. Colored citizens hail decision as momentous in long series of NAACP legal gains."

From Ira F. Lewis, Editor of the Pittsburgh Courier, came the statement:

"In my opinion the recent Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation on interstate buses is unquestionably one of the most sweeping and moving decisions of that august body. It takes its place beside the Texas primary case in national importance and must be construed as an indication that the United States insofar as the Supreme Court is concerned is on its way to make democracy a living thing in this country. Negroes everywhere will be encouraged and heartened by these two decisions which will allow them to hold their heads up and assume full responsibility as American citizens. lated for continuing the unremitting battle against intolerance, discrimination, and racial prejudice."

P. B. Young, Sr., Editor of the Norfolk Journal and Guide, stated:

'Editorial comment and bus administration official reaction indicate acceptance and full compliance with court's decision in Virginia. Colored citizens hail decision as momentous in long series of NAACP legal gains."

From Ira F. Lewis, Editor of the Pittsburgh Courier, came the statement:

"In my opinion the recent Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation on interstate buses is unquestionably one of the most sweeping and moving decisions of that august body. It takes its place beside the Texas primary case in national importance and must be construed as an indication that the United States insofar as the Supreme Court is concerned is on its way to make democracy a living thing in this country. Negroes everywhere will be encouraged and heartened by these two decisions which will allow them to hold their heads up and assume full responsibility as American citizens. Taxpayers and soldiers deserve every right guaranteed citizens under the Constitution."

Yesterday's Thoughts

It was a cold and bleak November day
The wind howled, slapped with turmoil and swiftness,
Shaking my room with mad riftness.
The trees swayed as if they protested—
The birds were shaken from where they nested.
I lay motionless; watching things,
Of a battleship somewhere sinking,
Of guns being fired every minute,
Cities being bombed; they have no finite.
I, startled by my imaginations,
Tried to forget life and thoughts of nations.
I thought of my mother and her kindly smile—
Thus my lore drifted across the miles.
I thought of secret moments we shared together,
It all brought me back to this kind of weather.
Suddenly, the wind with its strength grew bolder
Pushing into my room, making me colder;
I shrank back realizing my superior
For to this wind, I was inferior.
